

40 Things to do at Home

Learn how to say hello in 10 different languages	Write a letter to someone important to you (a grandparent, favourite athlete, the Queen etc)	Create a map of your house and have a treasure hunt or scavenger hunt	If possible, go on a spring nature walk and spot different flowers, birds, insects or animals
The Matchbox challenge – how many things can you fit inside a matchbox?	Create a presentation about yourself or something that interests you	Put on a play, puppet or shadow puppet show for your family	Read a book by a an author you haven't read before
Make your own play dough	Build a sundial or a weather station	Learn some circus skills	Make a scrapbook
Paint, draw or do some junk modelling and create an art gallery for your family	Plant flowers or vegetables and see them grow	Eat some interesting food that you have never tried before	Learn a magic trick to amaze your family
Compete a jigsaw	Learn to play an instrument or make one using household items	Learn the alphabet in sign language or some words in Makaton	Build a city out of lego
Design your own game and play as a family	Sort out items you no longer need to donate to charity	Research star constellations and look for some in the night sky	Create a family recipe book
Bake a cake or cookies and decorate them	Learn to skip	Choreograph a new dance or exercise routine	Design your own mini Olympics course
Build a fort or a tent indoors using bed sheets	Learn a new skill e.g. sew, cross-stitch, knit or weave	Create your family tree	Learn to play chess
Record a song or sing karaoke	Make a time capsule	Learn origami	Explore the world virtually on Google Earth
Cook for your family on a budget of £2	Write some short stories and publish them in a book	Have an indoor picnic	Learn 3 new words a day and challenge each other to use them in conversation