Aspire, Perform, Succeed

Hello parents and children. Mr Norton here.

Well, this is different.

We thought we would try and provide some sort of vlog for you, to say we miss you at school and we are thinking of you.

A quick word to parents. Work will be available on our website this week in the learning section in year groups. Log in information – bare with us, we can provide this over the phone. Please use the office@alexandra.hounslow.sch.uk for any questions or issues - we will get back to you, but please be patient.

Please remember to spread the work out, lots of reading, lots of reading, it makes you clever you know. Up to 3 hours max per day for the older children. Lots of well being and if you can some exercise. Jo Wicks - check out his website for daily exercises. Children, be good for your parent or career. You can't come to school at the moment, but you can do some things for us. Do some reading everyday. Read and get your parent to read to you, in English or your home language. Be good, listen and stay safe. Here are some books that you could look at. My recommendations if you like.

I loved Flay Stanley by Jeff Brown when I was growing up. I loved the idea of flying as a kite.

Danny the Champion of the World by Roald Dahl. I hated what the garage owner did to cars!

The Chocolate Touch by Patrick Skene Catling, can you ever have too much of a good thing. This story is about excess.

I am also interested in poetry. I want to read to you part of one of my favourite poems. Chocolate Cake. And this is quite ironic as I am allergic to chocolate and can only eat white chocolate. Chocolate Cake by Michael Rosen.

Now don't forget to keep up with times table rock stars. Email the school on APSallstars@alexandra.hounslow.sch.uk to show us pictures and videos of what you have been making, creating and learning at home.

For those children who were at school on Friday, remember what I said, here it is again for those who have not heard it.

I couldn't get round to see you all,

Children, thank you for all your effort and achievements this term.

We look forward to seeing you returning to school soon.

However, work has been set for you to complete each week.

In the meantime, stay safe, read a book, read to a parent, talk to them, they will be feeling all sorts of emotions too.

Get some exercise – lots.

Watch TV but not too much.

Play video games but not too many and only age appropriate ones.

We will be here and parents can contact school via telephone and email. You are not alone.

Make sure your parent knows where you are.

Some of you will be in school.

Others, we will see you soon,

You are all in our thoughts.

Teacher will be setting work.

All best for now.

Right, take care and keep safe, see you again soon.
